LETTER FROM ANDY

Dear all,

This is the final clergy letter that I will write before I move to my new appointment as Oversight Minister and Priest-in-Charge of Christ Church in Dore, Sheffield. We've had a wonderful five years at St John's and St Luke's, and are extremely grateful to God, and to you all, for this time.

Recently, I met an old friend who reminded me of a conversation that we had around 15 years ago. We'd been asked to consider what our aim in life was. I wonder how you would answer that question? My friend reminded me that I'd said that my aim in life was to be a joy-bringer. I don't know how well I'm doing with that, but I'll keep trying!

Joy, of course, is far more profound than happiness. Happiness is wonderful, but it is a circumstantial phenomenon - it relies on things being rosy in your life. Joy, on the other hand, is a deeper reality. It is a well that runs deep, even when the surface of your life is bone dry. It is something that you cannot buy - you who have no money, come, buy and eat... (Isaiah 55)

To be a joy-bringer is to seek to embody the one who alone can bring joy - to point to the goodness of God, the source of all joy.

In whatever way we might answer the question 'what is your aim in life?' we are all called to do two things - to love God and to love people. As we seek to follow these commands, we discover the source of joy:

If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

(John 15, 10-12)

There are so many things that I could reflect on as I draw near to the end of my time at St John's and St Luke's, but the thing that I want to leave you with is a challenge, a charge, based simply on the two great commands - to love God and to love your neighbour. This is where you will find joy. To love God and love people is a boundlessly creative pursuit that is both demanding and fulfilling

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. (Matthew 22, 37, cf. Deut. 6,5)

- it takes our whole selves, every part of our being.

We love God because we are first loved by God. Before you've done anything, achieved anything, proved anything, you are unconditionally loved by your Father in heaven. You are a beloved child of God - you are loved! The more that you can receive and discover this beautiful truth the more you will be capable of seeing the love-iness in others. However distorted the image, we are all made in the image of God. We are called to love not just the people who think how we think, and act in the way that we expect, but to love those who are difficult to love:

'If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return.' (Luke 6:32-35a)

I urge you to take every opportunity to build community through hospitality, social occasions, fellowship, and loving service. Let's be part of a church of which people say, 'see how they love one another'.

Hospitality and welcome are central to this. The pandemic has obviously made this far more difficult in many ways, but as we begin to recover, I see the place of eating together as being of great importance in building community, strengthening unity, and growing in our faith – a faith which, of course, has a feast at its centre.

Hospitality and welcome must always be extended to those on the margins – the least, the lost, and the lonely. When I think of St John's and St Luke's I think that this is something that is a real strength of the churches. I urge you to continue this valuable ministry.

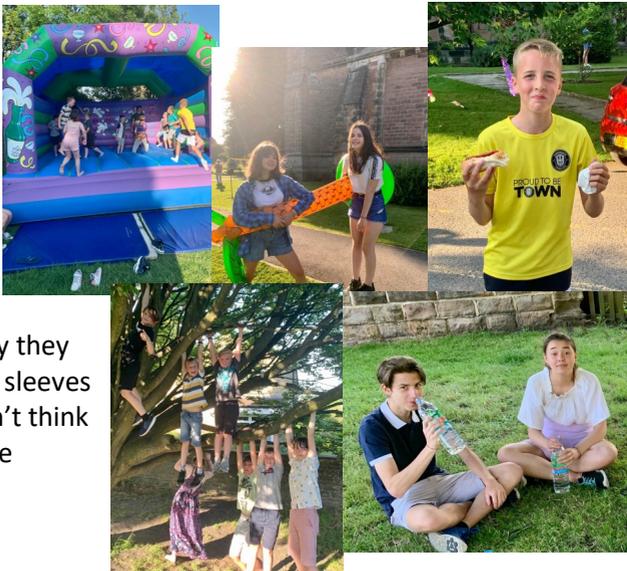

Before this turns into a full-on sermon I'll return to where I started, simply to say thank you. I pray that you may discover deep joy - the life in all its fullness kind of joy - as you love God and share his love. We'll miss you!

With our love and prayers,

Andy (+ Claire, Tom, and Orla)

YOUTH NEWS!

What an extraordinary year it's been for our young people: schools closed, exams cancelled, repeated isolations, the list goes on. But throughout it all, they have shown resilience and courage; I am so proud of the way they have just rolled up their sleeves and got on with it. I don't think anyone can call them the 'snowflake generation' anymore!

So, as we look ahead to hopefully a more normal year, we can build on the things that have begun this year: Ignite, meeting weekly on a Sunday night, 4twelve meeting at Bo Grove Café on a Wednesday as well as looking out for some new things beginning:

- A monthly youth service on a Sunday evening at St Luke's
- A mentoring scheme beginning at Harrogate High school
- A Kintsugi Hope group for young people, focusing on mental well-being
- A residential to Scargill House

PLEASE VOLUNTEER!

As church groups start up again, we do need people to help run them. Could you help? Please contact the church office to offer. Details on page 19.

Community Lunch - second Wednesday of the month

Thirst - every Wednesday 10.30 - 12 noon

Wellbeing Café - every Thursday 1 - 3

Refreshments after 10.30 service - both churches every Sunday

Charity Coffee Morning - second Saturday of the month 10 - 12 noon

CONGRATULATIONS TO ANDY!

As many of you will know, and as Andy explains himself elsewhere in the magazine, our team vicar, Andy Patrick, is moving to pastures new, having been appointed as the new incumbent of the parish of Dore in the Diocese of Sheffield. We are delighted for him and for Claire concerning the move, and we wish him all the best and commit to pray for them over the coming weeks and months. But I wanted to go on record and express my heartfelt thanks to Andy for his ministry among us over these past 5 years. I believe he has made an invaluable contribution to the mission and ministry of the parish, and we will really miss him. Truly our loss is Dore's gain!

But as well as praying for Andy, Claire, Tom and Orla, it would be great if folk can be praying for the process of discernment and appointment of Andy's successor. In all likelihood, the new postholder will not be in place until April at the earliest, such is the way of things. So in the meantime, please also pray for all those who will be working hard to ensure that the life of the parish continues apace.

The last 18 months has been a difficult time for so many reasons, and many of us have been unable to enjoy fellowship in church in the way we would like to. However, as the various restrictions ease and life begins to get back to normal, we think it is a good idea to encourage folk to think about coming back to church if their circumstances allow – and to help in this, we have identified Sunday 12th September as our 'Back to Church Sunday' where folk can return hopefully in the company of others who likewise haven't been coming along. We would love to see friends old and new on that day. Of course it may be that you are not ready yet, or that Sunday doesn't work for you – if so, no problem. Also, we will be producing invitations, so if there are people you would like to invite, why not pick some up from church?

- Use natural light when you can to save energy. Sit by the window. Decorate your home in light colours to maximise natural light.
- Turn your lights off when you're not using them. If you switch a light off for just a few seconds, you will save more energy than it takes for the light to start up again, regardless of the type of light.
- If you have lights in your garden use solar powered lights that charge during the day and don't require electricity.

QUESTION CORNER

Q. What do we really know about Mary Magdalene?

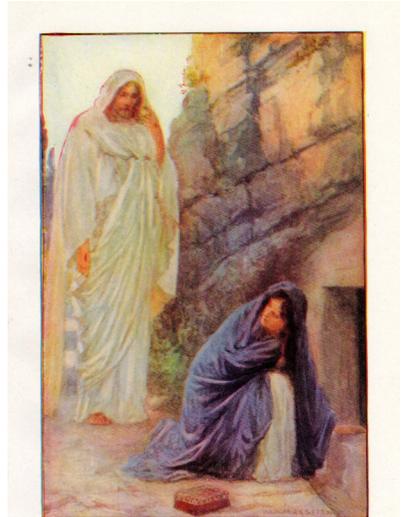

A. There are some fanciful theories about her, but here are the facts:

In the gospel sequence, we first read of her in Luke 8, 1-3, where we're told that Jesus had 'cast out seven demons' from her. It's not at all clear what that means, or how it might be described in modern medical terms. Various forms of sickness, such as epilepsy, were attributed to demon possession in the culture of those times. However, seven was seen as a significant number, so 'seven demons' implies a severe sickness.

Personally, I believe that Mary had suffered great mental and emotional torment, if not physical pain. Having seven demons does not mean that she was a particularly wicked woman, and there is nothing to suggest that she was the 'sinful woman' who anointed Jesus' feet in Luke 7, 37 and 38, although some believe that.

There is also a tradition that she was a prostitute. She might have been, but we don't know, and there is nothing in the gospels to support that belief either. What we do know is that, after being healed, she became a devoted follower of Jesus, and was one of a group who supported him in practical ways. At the crucifixion she stood near the cross, and then was one of the women who visited Jesus' tomb, finding it empty. And finally, slightly later, she was the first person to meet the risen Christ.

ARCHDEACON'S VISITATION

On Tuesday 20th July, three of our church wardens - Nigel Thompson, Jane Reichert and Pat Fenton– were officially sworn into their roles by The Venerable Jonathan Gough (Archdeacon of Richmond and Craven) at a service held in St Wilfrid's Church, Harrogate. It was wonderful to gather with clergy, churchwardens and supporters from other churches across the Harrogate deanery to celebrate the particular ministry of churchwardens and to give thanks for their gifts and service over what has been an immensely challenging few months. Although Jean Jarvis was not able to attend the service, she was very much in our prayers.

We are very blessed to have four excellent churchwardens at St John's and St Luke's and we are hugely thankful for their ministry. Let's continue to pray for them and support them as together we navigate through the challenges of emerging from restrictions and adjust to the changes this brings.

We're hoping to run Alpha again - a great opportunity to find out more about the Christian faith for the first time, or to have a sort of 'refresher course' - our provisional opening evening is Wednesday 29th October at 7pm. We aim to serve a light meal, and to be finished by 9pm. The basic format is have a meal, watch a video, discuss the video! There are approximately ten sessions plus one Saturday.

Please contact Simon on 07735 532821 or 561030 or simon.dowson@leeds.anglican.org for more details.

See <https://www.alpha.org/stories/> for stories about how people have been helped by Alpha.

WOODFIELD MILLENNIUM GREEN

This is a lovely little green area in the midst of the housing on the corner of Albany Avenue and Cecil Street. The Green is maintained by volunteers doing various tasks e.g. grass cutting, weeding the flower- and vegetable beds and cutting the hedges. There is an espalier of apple trees, a greengage, plum and cooking apple trees the fruit of which may be picked by anyone walking through The Green as are the vegetables (when they are ready). This is an area for the people maintained by the people.

There are three Trustees who are actively involved in the maintenance, and the volunteers usually meet on the first and third Saturdays in the month from 11am to 1pm, but any amount of time that you feel you can give to help will be very much appreciated. We have most garden equipment needed, but if you have a favourite pair of shears then please feel free to bring them. Just come along, or contact John Hart on 07903247246 or Maggie Atherton on 07443511253 for more information. Or if you prefer a sedentary 'job', we are also looking for a volunteer secretary to the Trustees.

WORSHIP IN FLOWERS

St John's Church flower team are a happy bunch of flower arrangers - no formal training but plenty of enthusiasm. We arrange a stand in the chancel weekly on an individual basis (although most arrangements last 2 weeks) with Christmas, Easter and Harvest 'specials' when we arrange together.

If you are interested in 'having a go' contact Alison 07982 243229 or alison.elsworth@hotmail.com

Occasionally we enjoy social occasions too!

Why not join us for Harvest to see what we do? Look forward to seeing you!

STILL ZOOMING; STILL HAVING FUN!

This term 1st Bilton Rainbows concentrated on our Reflect Skill Builder and Know Myself Theme awards. We talked about what makes us special and what qualities we look for in other people. We made beautiful story books about our friends, talked about famous people in history and made our own blue plaques dedicated to someone we thought deserved one.

We also had time to celebrate the Queen's 95th birthday by making her a birthday card and completing a quiz about her – who knew that one of her nicknames was Cabbage!! We also celebrated Girlguiding North East England's 50th birthday by (virtually) travelling around the region and completing various challenges. Amongst the things we got up to were decorating the Angel of the North, designing our own assault course (Catterick Garrison - although I'm not sure theirs includes a fire pit and crocodiles!), doing 199 steps, jumps, hops etc (to get up Whitby Abbey Steps), drawing creatures for our aquarium and a nice cuddly seal (the Deep, Blue Reef Aquarium and Seal Sands). We earned two lovely badges for these challenges.

We'd like to say special congratulations to Bethany, Elizabeth and Eloise for earning their Bronze award this term (2 themes) and extra special congratulations to Sophie who earned her Silver award (4 themes but she completed 5).

Finally we wish Bethany, Sophie and Paige good luck as they move on from us to Brownies – we're sure you'll have a fantastic time.

LOCKDOWN REFLECTIONS FROM A BOOKWORM

After a busy 2019, 2020 was looking to be the same, that was until we were put into the first Lockdown.

This was a great opportunity to indulge in my passion for and love of Books and all things Literature. I revisited old favourites, challenged myself to read books that had been sitting on my shelves unread and discovered new Authors. Some proved more of a challenge than others!

I have selected a few that I want to share that stood out for me:

Revelations of Divine Love, Julian of Norwich. I am sure many have read this book which drew me in. It is a collection of visions of a 14th Century Nun. It took me a couple of attempts but after all, I was challenging myself to new genres and styles, and time was not at a premium and no-one was going anywhere when I started the book at the beginning of the first Lockdown.

Crime and Punishment, Fyodor Dostoevsky. I have included a Russian Author as these are my 'go to' comfort reads, I grant you this is not what many would choose to relax with. Dostoevsky was more of a Thinker and wrote of the inner thoughts and turmoil of his Characters as we see with Raskolnikov who commits a crime and is tormented by it. This is in comparison with Leo Tolstoy who looked to Society and Politics as we see in War and Peace.

The Wolf Hall Series, Hilary Mantel. This is a series taken from the viewpoint of Thomas Cromwell, Chief Minister to Henry VIII. Her writing style is quite difficult to get into as it is almost academic but after a while and the second book, Bring Up the Bodies, I was very involved with the story.

After Three Lockdowns there was one book, that despite my best efforts, did not get finished and that was Les Miserables by Victor Hugo. I tried audiobooks, watching a film version and a brief synopsis to see if they would shed any light on the story and help me move through the book but alas, it was not to be. It was alright as like me, I am sure you have books that you just haven't gelled with.

To have my books during Lockdowns was a blessing. Even with the libraries closed, I still had access to books, and was inspired by Radio 4 for ideas. My To Be Read pile is still quite high - what a wonderful problem to have!
